Learn about FEMA Flood Map Updates

The Federal Emergency Management Agency recently updated Henrico's flood maps to provide an updated picture of Henrico County's flood risk. The result: a better picture of the areas that are most likely to be affected by flooding and a better foundation from which to make key decisions. Check out this video to learn more!

Schedule a free Mosquito Inspection

The weather is getting warmer, which means the mosquitos are out (and biting!). Contact the mosquito division in Public Works to schedule a FREE mosquito inspection on your property!
